

Electoral Review of Horsham

The independent Local Government Boundary Commission for England is carrying out an electoral review of Horsham District Council.

The review will draw new council ward boundaries across Horsham.

The Commission has also announced that 47 councillors should be elected to the council in future: three more than the current arrangements.

Now we are asking for evidence about your local area to help us decide a new pattern of wards for Horsham.

Your views will make a difference

Local people know their area best. That's why we are asking you for evidence on a range of issues:

- Do you have suggestions about where your ward boundaries should be?
- Which areas do you identify as your local community?
- Where do people in your area go to access local facilities such as shops and leisure activities?
