KEY:

ASB: Anti-social behaviour

E-CINS: Online confidential multi-agency system for sharing of caseloads.

ASB/crime/criminal damage

An increase in reported numbers here, partly due to an actual increase in ASB at the moment and partly due to increased awareness of a Warden being back in post.

Parking/vehicles

Community engagement/events/meetings

- Attended monthly village market – Great opportunity for meeting community members and sharing concerns
- Carried out visits to businesses in the village to introduce myself and pass on contact details - ongoing

Patrols (foot/visible and car)

- Mobile patrols to cover Parish boundaries:- Nutbourne, Blackgate Lane, Pickhurst Lane, Broomers Hill, London Road, Gay Street Lane and Stane Street.
- Foot patrols to Primary School, recreation ground, Cousins Way Rec, Glebe fields, Station Road, Train Station, Church Place and London Road.
- Targeted patrols to monitor fly tipping hot-spots and train departures/arrivals of local students.
- Targeted patrols to monitor areas of village where current issues have been reported
- High visibility Patrol at School drop-off to reinforce safe parking practices
- Joint Patrol with PCSOs to provide a high visibility presence in the Parish

Elderly and youth

- Joint visit with Storrington Warden to a vulnerable, elderly person in Storrington who has been the target of financial abuse.
- Continued engagement with young people in the village is enabling me to have very good conversations with them that are moving from initial casual conversation to more of a care/welfare basis. I am being seen as someone they can talk to and who can address their issues.

Licensing

N/A

Dog related issues

One report of continued late-night offending – investigations ongoing

Cycling

Carried out a home visit to the family of one young person who was the subject of a report of anti-social/dangerous use of a bicycle

Parish specific/other

Carol and I were the first uniformed presence at the scene of road traffic accident in Storrington, where we immediately took control of the situation, closing the road at both ends, managing the scene until the Police arrived and the scene was eventually cleared.
