15. REPRESENTATIVES' REPORTS AND ITEMS

Bowling Club

Mr Adsett advised that the Bowling Club have done well this year, they were 4th in the County League, Division 2 and 3rd in the BML Triple League. The West Sussex Bowling League members have the opportunity to vote for the club that they enjoy playing at the most and Pulborough Bowling Club won that award. Their Green Keeper is doing a great job and the green has a good reputation in Sussex. The club could do with more members, but they will keep advertising.

The R&OS Committee congratulated the Bowling Club on their achievements and asked the Deputy Clerk to send a letter of congratulations to the club.

PFC

Mr Jupp advised that the club has 2 teams and all the new goals have been purchased and are being used. There is now also a junior team, they are yet to start in the league, so will probably have a few friendly matches to start with.

16. DATE OF NEXT MEETING

The Deputy Clerk advised everyone that the ReCAD meeting due on 21st November 2019 has been re-arranged for Thursday 12th December 2019.
